Curator's Talk by Monika Kinner-Whalen

Award winning fibre artist Monika Kinner-Whalen will talk about her curatorial process for the exhibition Our Prairie In Fibre on now at the Affinity Gallery.

"I wanted to walk into a room where anyone who entered would be enveloped with the deep bond between the artist and their homeland...The bond between woman and her prairie became undeniable as an interlocking theme that connects all the pieces together." ~ Monika Kinner-Whalen

Curator's Talk: Thursday, February 5, 7 pm

Exhibition on until February 21, 2015

Affinity Gallery, Saskatchewan Craft Council building
813 Broadway Avenue, Saskatoon, SK S7K 1B5

Gallery Hours: Monday to Saturday, 10 am to 5 pm; Open until 8 pm Thursday

Our Prairie In Fibre is a collection of fibre art from women across Alberta, Saskatchewan, and Manitoba. This exhibition celebrates the abundant spectrum of Fibre Art while exploring each women's intimate connection with her Prairie. The pieces in this exhibition range from wall art to home goods, sculptural to wearable, as well as a video installation. You will find weaving, knitting, garments, crochet, embroidery, quilting, felting and rug hooking.
