

PRESS RELEASE

Where River Meets Sky: Works by Aboriginal Artists at Affinity Gallery

View a selection of contemporary works from The Mann Art Gallery Permanent Collection, curated by Michel Boutin, a Canadian/Métis artist and arts educator. Included in the exhibition is Governor General's History Award winning painting "Grandmother" by Dene artist Catherine Blackburn.

In addition are works by Saskatchewan Craft Council members, curated by Saskatchewan Craft Council's Exhibition and Education Coordinator Leslie Potter.

Michel Boutin explains that:

"the art works in this exhibition represent the life force and the spirit of the people, the Place Where River Meets Sky."

Please join us at the Public Reception, Saturday May 24, 7-9 pm. It is the closing event of the three-day Aboriginal Artist Symposium.

Exhibition Dates: April 19 to May 31, 2014
